When we Intenders catch ourselves projecting an undesired experience like this, we immediately remind ourselves of one of the main reference points in the Intention Process - that our thoughts and our words are constantly creating our world. The old saying, "As you believe, so it shall be for you" is a great truth.

The Intenders Newsletter May 2015

When we introduced The Code to the world, several Intenders recommended that, along with our Code for personal conduct, we ought to create a Code of Conduct for communities to follow. We were told that groups of all kinds, including churches, businesses, families, and many more were looking for a mission statement or an empowering guideline ...
