Photography Essentials for Beginners. While I don't consider myself a "professional photographer", I do take just about all the photographs for my blog and I think they look pretty professional ☺☺ But it's always a work in progress. I asked for a DSLR camera for Christmas a few years back and Santa was nice enough to put one under the tree!

Landscape photography often requires extended periods of waiting outdoors, and potentially hiking through a landscape to get to your destination. If you spend all your time too hot, too cold or too wet, then it's a distraction from the creative process and you're far more likely to give up on the day long before its really necessary.
